Courage to Connect... ...With Following Your Passion

"Follow your bliss and don't be afraid..." Joseph Campbell

Monday March 2nd 2015, 7pm-8.30pm | St James' Church Meeting Rooms, 197 Piccadilly, London W1
FREE EVENT – Donations appreciated to cover costs.

Living Life fully conscious, fully awake, feeling every feeling, telling the truth, loving fully, with passion, vitality and energy, because this is the only life you've got, so why the hell not?

This is one of a series of Talks Sahera gives on subjects she writes about in her forthcoming book, 'Life Lessons ~ Through The Grit To The Pearl' and her weekly Blog, 'Courage To Connect'.

In this Interactive Talk, Sahera will speak on what it takes to sincerely follow our passion with trust, courage and commitment, unblocking our fear of success and living in alignment with our true nature. It is precisely because we follow our passion that we can prosper.

*"We ask ourselves who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be?"
~ Marianne Williamson*

Sahera Chohan is an author, speaker, facilitator and coach. She has worked in the field of learning and development for the past 25 years, both in the public and private sector, facilitating and coaching thousands of people worldwide to reach their potential through having the courage to connect with their authentic selves.

Sahera is currently writing her first book, 'Life Lessons ~ Through The Grit To The Pearl' which documents her journey through some particularly difficult life experiences, including the suicide of her husband, the premature death of her mother and her former battle with addiction. Her book shows how even in the most devastating of life events, there lies a gift, a pearl waiting to be claimed, if we can truly and fully connect to our life experiences. You can read her weekly Blog, 'Courage To Connect' at saherachohan.com.

Sahera was also a Broadcaster for BBC Television and Radio. She co-led Creative Writing workshops with her late husband, and lived on a horse ranch in the Arizona desert for two years, where she practiced Equine Therapy at a Rehabilitation centre for young adults.
